Note: Data in this report covers members of Congress sworn in on Jan. 3, 2021. One contested election, in New York's 22nd District, was uncalled by the start of the new Congress. Congressman-elect Luke J. Letlow of Louisiana's 5th District died before the swearing-in; his seat will go unfilled until a March special election. One representative, Mariannette Miller-Meeke of Iowa, was sworn in provisionally on Jan. 3; she is included in this analysis. In addition, both of Georgia's Senate seats were subject to runoff elections set to take place Jan. 5, 2021. Therefore, this table includes 531 members of Congress, rather than 535.
